

Trail Explorer Journal

Record your Adirondack adventure — one hike at a time!

DATE: _____ TRAIL NAME: _____ MILES: _____

WEATHER:

Sunny

Cloudy

Rainy

Windy

Cold

WHO CAME WITH ME ON THIS HIKE?

HOW HARD WAS THIS TRAIL TO HIKE?

Easy Peasy

Good Challenge

Super Hard!

TIME WE STARTED: _____

TIME WE FINISHED: _____

THINGS I SPOTTED ON THE TRAIL

A bird (what kind?):

A wild animal:

A cool rock:

A wildflower:

A bug or insect:

Animal tracks:

A waterfall or stream:

Something really tall:

Something tiny:

Something that surprised me:

MY FAVOURITE MOMENT ON THIS HIKE:

WOULD YOU HIKE THIS TRAIL AGAIN?

YES! Loved it!

Maybe someday

No way!

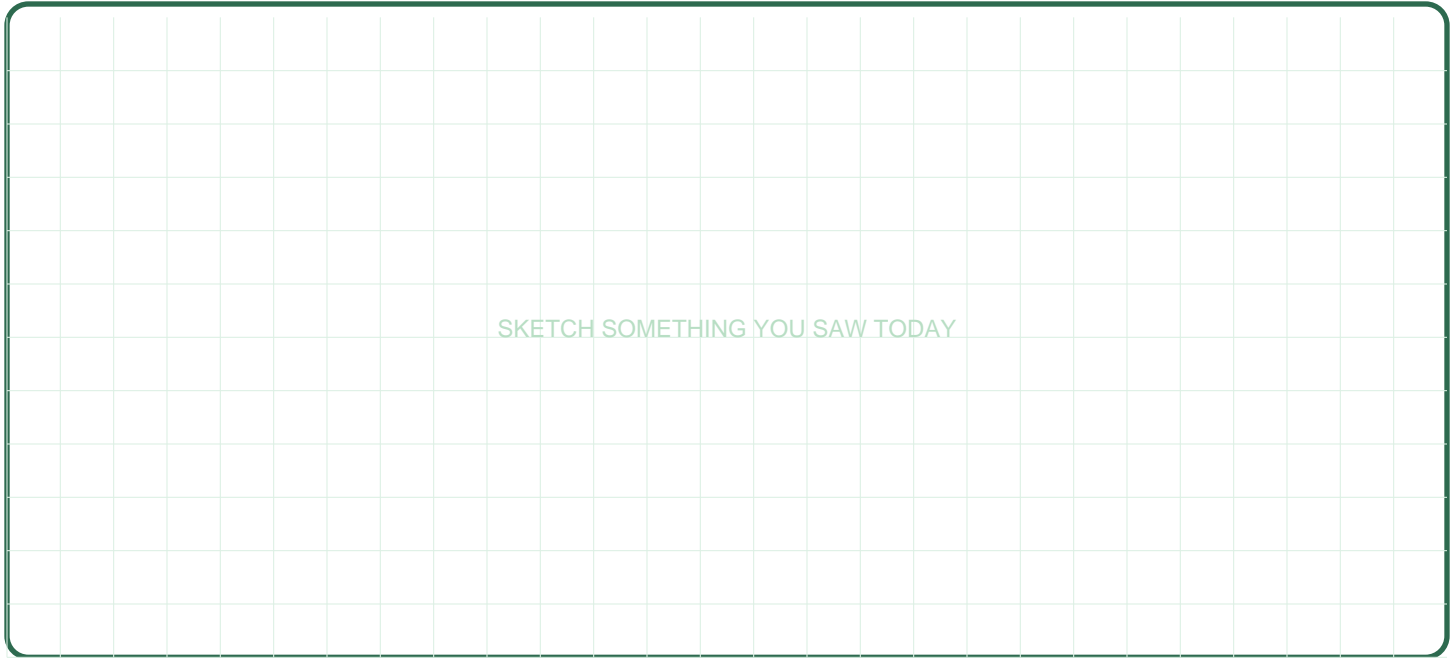

RATE THIS TRAIL: (colour in the stars!)

DRAW YOUR FAVOURITE THING YOU SAW TODAY:

Nature Notes & Sketches

Use this page for drawings, pressed leaves, or notes about what you found.

SKETCH SOMETHING YOU SAW TODAY

MY NATURE OBSERVATIONS

The loudest sound I heard was:

The best smell on the trail was:

The most interesting texture I touched was:

I was surprised to see:

A question I have about something I found:

A new word I learned today:

Something I want to find on my next hike:

THE JUNIOR EXPLORER PLEDGE

I promise to leave nature as beautiful as I found it. I will pack out what I pack in, stay on the trail, and always treat the forest, lakes, and animals with respect. The Adirondacks belong to everyone — and to those who come after us.